

Spotlight on Hillsboro 2020 Vision Volunteer Partner: Hillsboro Community Arts

Each month we will be spotlighting a Volunteer Partner with the Hillsboro 2020 Vision.

Have you been seeking to be more actively engaged in the arts community of Hillsboro? Then you have come to the right place. With options in both volunteerism and membership on several different levels you are sure to find what you are looking for. "Hillsboro Community Arts fosters the arts through entertainment, education and experience."

As Victoria Shepard, President of HCA says, "The success of our community depends on how well we who live here are connected to each other. Many opportunities exist to do just that. Discover your community by venturing out to the new production at HART Theater. Attend an Oregon Chorale or Hillsboro Symphony concert just right around the corner. Check out the events scheduled at your local school and see how proud you can feel about the education of our youth. Develop relationships with your fellow citizens by showing up (80% of success) and participating within the culture you help to create."

There are many opportunities to volunteer with Hillsboro Community Arts. Helping at Showtime at Shute performances, assisting with a membership drive, handling bulk mailings, editing a newsletter for HCA, producing fliers, grant writing, or coordinating one of our programs. Please view HCA's web site at www.hillsborocommunityarts.org to see more details.
